

INSPECTION NOTICE OF RIGHTS

IN COMPLIANCE WITH AZ STATE SENATE BILL 1598

The legal authority for this inspection is City Ordinance 07-1057 and the Administrative Section 101 of the International Fire Code 2006 Edition.

Your rights, as the Regulated Person or authorized representative during the inspection, are noted below:

1. Inspectors must present photo ID and state the purpose, legal authority and any applicable fees for the inspection.
2. Except for swimming pool inspections and during confidential interviews, you, as the regulated person or an authorized representative of the regulated person, have the right to accompany the Inspector during the inspection.
3. You have the right to have: (a) copies of any original documents taken from the premises during the inspection; (b) a split or duplicate of any samples taken during the inspection if the split or duplicate of any samples, where appropriate, would not prohibit an analysis from being conducted or render an analysis inconclusive; and (c) copies of any analysis performed on samples taken during the inspection.
4. Inspectors must inform each person interviewed during the inspection that the conversation is being tape recorded if the conversation is being recorded and that any statements the person makes may be included in the inspection report.
5. You have the right to appeal any final decision based on the report of inspection. If you wish to pursue an appeal, you must file a written notice of appeal with the Fire Marshal within five (5) days of the receipt of the inspection report. If you have questions about your appeal rights, you can contact the Fire Marshal at 623-932-2300.

Regulatory documents and fees: Copies of all City regulatory documents and fees are on record at City Hall and are available on line at www.goodyearaz.gov, or will be provided to you at no expense.

Goodyear businesses overall demonstrate a positive interest in cooperating with fire and life safety concerns. Most businesses may never pay fees due to minimal code requirements and rapid compliance. Goodyear Fire Department appreciates the cooperative attitude of our business community. The assessed fees related to this Safety Inspection are as follows:

- Initial Safety Inspection and one recheck to document completion of any outstanding items will be free of charge.
- A second recheck (the third time the inspector returns) will require a fee in the amount of $90.00.
- Each additional return will also be assessed a fee of $90.00 until all safety violations have been completed.
